joined the combine, and it promises to be one of the most powerful industrial organizations in the country.

The whole concern was valued at double the capital as given below. Subsequently it was decided to reduce the estimate on which this was based by one half, each factory being paid by an equivalent in shares. The Egyptian Investment and Agency, Limited, intend offering 7.5 (00 one-pound shares at a premium of one pound to their shareholders and friends. There are other ginning factories taken over besides those mentioned below, which are only the chief concerns. Nearly all the banks are interested in the company, which is destinated to occupy as high a position in spining as the Société de Pressage et des Dépôts does in pressing. There will probably be a limited public subscription in about ten days' time. This combine will be of great advantage in regard to the financial equilibitium of industrial Egypt. Often the position of up-country ginners with little capital has caused a good deal of revousness to the banks, but all this anxiety will be obviated by the combine, which will develop so as in course jot time to gin in all the centres, and will have a virtual that or a stream of the property of the combine, which will develop so as in course jot time to gin in all the centres, and will have a virtual will develop to the course of time to gin in all the centres, and will have a virtual that the course of the course

DEATH OF MRS. BALBI.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs. Elsen Babb, the wife of Major H. A. Babbi, R.M. A., who died at Malta on Saturday week (20th May) after a brief illness. The funeral, which was strictly private, took place yesterday week. Mrs. Babb was the daughter of Fleet Surgeon McDermotri, R.N. She had only left. Alexandria with the Royal Malta Artillery, which her husband commanded, a few weeks ago, and during her residence in Egypt had made a large number of friends, to whom the sad news of her untimely end will come as a great shock, as the decessed left Egypt in apparently the best of health. The following sympathetic notice is extracted from the "Malta Chronicle": health. The following sympathetic extracted from the "Malta Chroni "The death of Mrs. Balbi has brought is extracted from the "Matta Chronicle":

"The death of Mrs. Babli has brought a heavy weight of gird, not only upon Major Babli, but upon a large number of the inhabitants of Matta,
to whom the decosaed lady was well-known
and by whom she was greatly respected.
"In Egypt too many will learn an the attonishment and sorrow that Mrs. Babli, who had helped to make the long days in a foreign land pass with less weariness to the English and Mattase community there, and who leat herself willingly to the forwarding of good works of a permanent hatter, is no more.
"It is yet but a short time since Major and Mrs. Babli returned to Matta elong with the outingent of the R.M.A. which had done duty there. There was nothing to cause the fear that her days would so quickly end. Still there is gloom now where her presease brought brightmess !

The recentless of the deceased may stream to this island, her comparative youth, the shortness of her illness, have all combined to impress her friends and acquaintances, and to awake a deep sympathy with those who now most mourn her loss."

NILE NAVIGATION.

NEW COMPANY FORMED.

The possibilities of the development of Nile navigation are immense, and there appears to be a good opening for the new Bus-Bost Company (Compagnie des Bateaux-Omnibus) which has just been founded. The objects of the new company are the transport of persons, goods, cattle, etc., by waterway in Egypt and all other enterprises subdidiry thereto. The company declares that it recognises retrospectively the concession granted to Mesers. Ad. Cattani & Co. by the Egyptian Government for the construction of pontroons on the two banks of the Nile between Old Cairo and Bod el-Farag, and of the conventions made by the same firm with Mesers. Thos. Cook & Son (Egypt), Limited, and the Anglo-American Nile Steamers and Motel Company, Limited. The (Egypt), Limited, and the Anglo-American Nile Steamers and Hotel Company, Limited. The capital is LE, 10,000 in 2,500 shares of LE 4 each. It has already been subscribed and the following persons have taken up the undermentioned amount of shares: Mesars. Ad. Cattani; Co., 1,800, Ad. Cattani; 100, Glutave Cattani; 100, Alfred de Menasoa, 100, Dario Finzi; 100, Paul Oriol, 100, Robert S. Role, 100, André Saarka, 100. These gentlemen will form the board of directors.

A PROSPEROUS COMPANY.

To-morrow the annual general meeting of the Anglo-American Nile Steamers and Hotels Company will be held at Cairo, when a very satisfactory statement of this company is progress will be placed before the shareholders. We understand that £35,000 six per cent. debentures are to be redeemed, and besides a dividend of eight per cent. on the year's working a bonus of one per cent. will be given, making a total of nine per cent. The company has been so successful this year that all the preliminary expenses, which amounted to nearly £3,000, are to be written off, and £10,000 will be placed to the reserve, bringing the reserve fund up to about £12,000.

THE LOCUST VISITATION.

Mr. Machell left Cairo last Thursday and Mr. Machell left Cairo last Thursday and proceeded to Maghagha, where the larger flights of locusts have been observed, in order to personally impect this part of the country and to find out if any damage had been done, and to what extent the locusts had laid gags. He found, however, that although a considerable number of locusts thad alighted in these spots, they had almost entirely disappeared, and that very few eggs had been laid. Owing to the prevalence of N. to N. E. winds there is very little fear of a recurrence of the plague from which the country suffered last year. July. Sat. 8

THE PLAGUE.

Bight cases of plague have been notified in Egypt since the 21st inst, viz., 2 at Mit-Ghamm, 3 at Menouf, 2 at Port Said, and 1 at Alexandria. One death from plague was report-city esterday from Damanbour and also 1 from Mehouf. There are now eight cases under trastboart.

SUSPECTED PLAGUE ON SHIP.
